Ringkasan

My name is Kotijahturahmah and I am a fifth semester student majoring in Information Technology at Politeknik Negeri Tanah Laut. I enjoy exploring new things, especially in the field of technology and communication. During my study period, I actively participated in various activities that could help me develop my knowledge and communication skills. During semester 2 and 3, I developed my skills in developing information systems. Then I became interested in data mining, and how to process data, so I decided to join the “Bangkit Academy” program. Here I learned to hone my skills, especially in machine learning.
